To the Editor of the Whig & Courier

Mr. Reeves, a distinguished graduate of the Perkins Institute of the Blind, having been trained according to best normal methods, proposes to establish himself in Bangor as teacher in music. We predict that he will not only stand high in his profession, but become a useful and respected citizen, therefore it may not be uninteresting to your readers to know something of his antecedents. Blindness for a long time, at first it had developed great powers, was regarded as the insuperable barrier to the active professions, and it was not till very lately that educational establishments of high order have been provided at the public expense in this and other countries for those laboring under this infirmity. Even now, we are hoping for more liberal views on the subject. The instructor at South Boston has done much, especially in the department of music, to raise the standard of attainment. Within five years, more than nine thousand dollars have been expended for musical instruments. It has now one of the largest organs, and with the exception of the great organ being erected in the Music Hall, perhaps the best in the city, and about twenty-five pianos, fifteen of which are large modern instruments.

The pupils go through a regular course of systematic training. No "shoddy" work is allowable here. They are thoroughly drilled in best instruction books, then fed with care through the Etudes and larger works of the great composers, Bertini, Czerny, Cramer, Chopin, Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Liszt, Thalberg, &c. It is required that they attend all the best concerts given in the city. Under these influences the talents of young Reeves have been developed. He will ask no patronage on account of his blindness. While he is singularly modest, and retiring, he is conscious of ability. He will rest his claim on merit alone. Let the people of Bangor hear him and judge.

Perkins Inst. for the Blind, So. Boston, Apr 8

This gentleman will play at the Band Concert this evening.

THE RAMS AND THE MERRIMAC. It is reported that the rebels are putting a stop to the desertion of negroes, by the assurance that they will be forced into the Yankee negro regiments upon their arrival, and compelled to take the front of all the battles, while if they remain at home they will be free from conscription.

There were telegraphic reports yesterday of the taking of Charleston by the Federal fleet and army. Supposed to be a government lie got up to help their party in the Connecticut elections, which took place yesterday.—Boston Herald, 8d.

The above is an acknowledgement we hardly expected to see. The Democrat allows that a Union victory helps the Union party and damages the Democratic. How long will honest Democrats remain with a party dependent upon the defeat of our armies in battle for their political successes?

FROM VICKSBURG. Officers who arrived at Cairo on the 3d instant state that, before leaving Vicksburg, heavy floats, having 64-pound Parrott guns mounted upon them, had been towed down to a point opposite the city, within fair range, and having a full view of the signal station of the rebels and the Vicksburg Court House. They were to have opened fire early the present week. From this it would appear that a new scheme of operations has been inaugurated.

WEST VIRGINIA AND EMANCIPATION. The returns from West Virginia on the vote on the Willey amendment to the State Constitution, providing for gradual emancipation, are all one way. Preston county gives 1061 votes for to 68 against the amendment. Upshur 742 to 8. Marion 968 to 8. The returns from Monongahelia are not all in, but the vote for the amendment will reach nearly 1400, while the against it will not exceed 100. The whole soldiers' vote for the amended Constitution is 7579 for and 181 against.

SHORT SUPPLIES IN MISSISSIPPI. The market reports from Jackson, the State capital of Mississippi, set down the price of flour in that place at the enormous figure of one hundred and ten dollars a barrel. The reason for this is said to be that while General Pemberton, at Vicksburg, has interdicted the shipment of flour from that city toward Jackson, General Buckner, at Mobile, has monopolized all the supplies in that direction.

It is said that some of the most distinguished engineers in France have approved a plan for a railway from Paris to Marseilles, by which the journey, which now consumed eight-teen hours, may be made in one hour and a half. The distance is 510 miles. The plan has been submitted to the Emperor for his approbation. The hydraulic system, in which sliding is substituted for running on wheels, is that proposed.

LATER FROM THE BARK PEARL ALABAMA. Capt Scott, of the British schooner Roderick Random, which arrived at this port on the 30th ult., from Miraguane, states that on the 23d of March, when in latitude 32° 30 min. North, longitude 78° 42 min. saw the rebel privateer steamer Alabama and exchanged "longitudes" with her. According to this report the privateer on that date was in the latitude of Charleston, and in the track of our West Indiamen.

CUTTING J., PRESIDING.

Wednesday, April 8th.

Israel B Norcross vs Benjamin N Thomas. The plaintiff, proprietor of the National House in this city, alleges that he is damaged by the defendant's blacksmith shop, which he has established near the hotel, and by the smoke, cinders, &c., of the shop.

Brigge. F A Wilson.

TRAIN OFF THE TRACK. The morning train from this city ran off the track when about two miles out, in consequence of the breaking of a rail. The engine, tender, and all the cars, except the rear passenger car, were thrown off, but very fortunately no damage was done, beyond the delay.

☞ Died at Baton Rouge, in Military Hospital, March 5th, Fred E. Webster, youngest son of Richard and Hannah Webster, aged 18 years and 9 months. He was a member of Co. E, 22d Maine regiment, and was much esteemed by his comrades.

WHEREAS, It has pleased God in His wise providence to remove from us by death our dear brother and former school-mate Charles W. Greely, of company H, 16th regiment.

Resolved, That the people of Exeter, and especially the Exeter High School, have lost one whose manly virtues, intellectual attainments and high moral patriotism, so endeared him to us all.

Resolved, That while we deeply feel our loss, we would extend our heart-felt sympathies to the bereaved friends in this, their time of sorrow and affliction.

Resolved, That although our brother was stricken down so soon ally, and not while voluntarily contending for our rights, we esteem the sacrifice of his life as truly noble as that of those who fall on the field of battle.

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent to the friends of the deceased, and to the several members of the Exeter High School.

J. H. KNIGHT,
C. C. PALMER,
D. L. FARMER,
Committee.

Exeter, April 6, 1863.

SULLIVAN, one of the men who robbed the store of W. & T. Cary, at East Hampden, was arrested yesterday. The night before officer Walker searched a house, and found two hats which were taken from General Hersey's entry a few evenings since and quite an assortment of other goods.

TO-NIGHT. There will be a grand promenade Concert and Dance to-night at Norombega Hall. It will be given by the Bangor Cornet Band, who have made ample arrangements to insure a good time. A band of music in a public necessity, and our citizens should see to it that they receive sufficient encouragement to enable them to continue their practice, that we may have a band which will compare favorably with those in other places of equal size. Let the house to-night testify that the public appreciate their services, and are ready to extend to them a helping hand.

SNOW STORM. No less than a foot of snow fell on Tuesday night last, a very large body for this season of the year. We shall probably have a few days of very good sleighing before the spring commences in earnest.

☞ The Portland papers talk about the "first salmon of the season." That is all enough for Portland, but Mr. Goodnow at the Exchange regaled his customers on the same at least a month ago.

HOSPITAL RETURNS. We have several hospital returns furnished by our Augusta correspondent, which will appear to-morrow morning.

SUPPER. The supper to Colonel Noroross last evening at the National House, was a very successful affair in all respects. The catching were excellent, and the guests enjoyed themselves hugely.

☞ RALPH WARD EMERSON will be in Portland next Sabbath.

☞ The Belfast Journal has been reduced in size to the exclusion of a certain class of advertising. It would be for the public more to leave out the editorials and let the advertisements remain.

☞ The inhabitants of "Old Machias" will have a centennial celebration at Machias, (May 20th.) The towns of Machias, East Machias, Machiasport, Whitneyville and Marshfield are included in the original territory.

☞ We are indebted to Hon. John H. Rice for the Congressional Directory of the Third Session of Congress.

☞ The "Natural Reaper" is expanding extensively. The paper talk about "exchange," "bulls," "bears" &c., with as much gusto as a Wall Street Daily.

☞ Capt John W. Balch, son of the late John Balch, formerly of Trescott, was captured by the rebels some time in January last on the coast of North Carolina. Capt B was "Executive officer" on board the steamer Columbia, which unfortunately ran ashore, and fell a prey to the Confederates, with the crew. Capt. B and his associates, when last heard from were at Salisbury, N. C.

SIGNIFICANT. The Portland Argus cautioned the copperheads not to believe any unfavorable news, but to go the straight Democratic ticket, regardless of news. Last bank until too late to retract it. It was significant fact that the reported taking of Charleston was the only news of the slightest importance which had been reported for a day or two. Was that the unfavorable news that the Argus referred to?

☞ A Saw Mill and Sawdust Carrier, owned by Mr James O Clark, was burned on Thursday last—worth $1500, insured for $700.

☞ At a regular meeting of Mt. Carmel Division, at North Castine, the following officers were elected for the ensuing quarter:

John Dearborn, W. P.; Z. Blake, W. A.; H. W. Blake, R. S.; Chas. H. Stone, A. R. S.; V. Walker, F. S.; E. Stone, T.; M. Fernald, C.; I. Warren, A. C.; J. N. Dearborn, S.; A. H. Higgins, C. S.

☞ A new Post office has been established in the southern part of Robbinston, called South Robbinston: E. J. Gerry, P. M.

The semi-annual coupons on the bonds of the Atlantic & St. Lawrence Railroad Company, amounting to $30,000, due April 1st, are paid in any of the banks of this city.—Portland Price Current.

Nandy Wood and his copperheads say the loyal is an aristocratic word because it rhymes with royal. They might with the same propriety say that treason is a disloyal word because it rhymes with treason.

UNION MEETING IN PORTLAND. There was an immense Union meeting at Portland on Friday evening, which was addressed by J. T. McCobb, Esq., Hons. J. H. Drummond and Charles Holden, Lewis Barker, Esq., of Stetson, and others. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. We copy from the Press the report of Mr. Barker's speech.

The Chairman then introduced to the audience Lewis Barker, Esq., of Penobscot County, as a "live democrat." A man who had voted the Jamesson ticket from the start, until like some others, finding the platform was not wide enough, he stepped over on to the other side, where there was a platform wide enough for the whole world.

Mr. Barker was received as he arose to speak with enthusiastic and long continued applause. We intended to given running, though necessarily imperfect report of his remarks, but from our brief notes, snatched only at intervals, we find it impossible to do him anything like justice. He claimed to be a loyal Democrat, a Democrat who voted for the gallant Jamesson up to the very last State election, and he regretted that so many who started with him in opposition to the leaders of the copperhead Democracy had fallen back and were following the lead of disloyal men. He had been a life long Democrat, had voted for and thus assisted to elect James Buchanan, and if he did not think it was asking too much he would ask Heaven to forgive him, but so long as he could not forgive himself he dare not prefer such a petition. His review of the Democratic party, of the loyalty of the masses and the disloyalty of the leaders, of its' betrayal at Charleston by Cushing and others, of its promise at the North at the commencement of the war and its gradual change until it is now standing as the guardian of slavery and despotism, was truthful and just, and his appeals to loyal men to stand together, were earnest and affecting. He had done his whole duty to slavery while it was loyal, now that it had raised its bloody hand to throttle the Union he was determined not to flag in doing his duty in another direction. Those Democrats who oppose the war and denounce Republicans as abolitionists, were themselves abolitionists, but they go for the abolition of freedom—the overthrow of constitutional liberty.

Mr. Barker spoke for over an hour, and throughout he commanded the most undivided attention, and was repeatedly interrupted by the most enthusiastic applause. He closed by reciting the "Ship of State," a brief poem written by that true poet of nature, David Barker, which will compare favorably with the best efforts of Bryant or Whittier. The audience seemed reluctant to have him close, and expressed their approbation of his efforts by the most sincere demonstrations.

After three cheers for Mr. Barker, proposed by the Chairman, three more for the Union, and three more for the Sommers, the meeting adjourned.

[illegible] THAT GENERAL FOSTER IS SURROUNDED IN N. C.

NEW YORK, 8th.

The steamship Columbia from New Orleans on the 31st ult., has arrived.

There is no confirmation of the report that Fort Hudson was assaulting Fort Hudson.

Several guns in Davis had been captured by the rebels.

Major Bullen of Pattersonville, La., was killed, Lieut. Allen of Arnold's staff, wounded and taken prisoner, Quartermaster Bohmer killed; boatswain Shepherd killed; Capt. Jegert of the 16th wounded, Lieut. Hall of the Diana, wounded, Lieut. Jeffries of the 12th Conn., wounded, and several privates killed and wounded.

Two hundred of our men were paroled by the rebels.

The Berkshire arrived at New Orleans on the 31st ult. from Brazos Santiago with 1500 Texas refugees.

It is reported on the 10th of March, a rebel force landed in Mexico at the mouth of the Rio Grande and captured Colonel Davis of the 1st Texas cavalry and Captain Montgomery of the artillery.

The Mexican authorities demanded their release. Davis was given up, as also three of the men, but all the same [illegible].

The [illegible] story had not returned, and principal troops were washing by the rebels, which [illegible] city true.

General Montgomery were taken from the [illegible] Mexican commandant.

Forty-three others narrowly escaped falling [illegible] the rebels. They, with half a [illegible] Brigade, drove 500 of the rebels to the [illegible] killing three or four, of whom two have [illegible].

The rebels Arthur threw two shells into [illegible] quarters, on the night of the 25th.

The rebel captain Bennavides had also crossed the Rio Grande, and formed a town near Guerrero.

The rebel authorities were evidently in a great [illegible] to arm last these violations of neutrality [illegible] them in hostilities with Mexico.

The troops are now concentrated near the mouth of the Rio Grande.

Twelve schooner and cargo valued at 25,— had been captured by the rebels near Rio [illegible].

An immense trade is carried on over the Rio Grande.

[illegible]'s informant says a train of 500 carts [illegible] on the way to Matamoras.

The carts average 5 bales of cotton each.

Hunt Lubbock of Texas, in a message to the Legislature, declares the re-election, and says Texas is more active part in the war.

The people affirm that he will leave the Confederacy as soon as his term expires.

It is stated that Texas has furnished 87,000 troops for the rebel army, and that the conscription act adopted by the Legislature will add [illegible] to this under this law.

There are no exemptions. Every man who can bear arms, upon his feet will be forced into the army.

Many of the refugees who came to New Orleans on the Honduras have enlisted in Colonel [illegible]'s regiment, and 75 rebel deserters are at Matamoras awaiting transportation, in order to take the same thing.

There were eighty vessels at the mouth of the Rio Grande.

The latest advices of the 4th contain no Mexican news.

The Vanderbilt was at Havana.

The Sonora sailed from Havana on the 3d.

The English steamer Dolphin was captured on the 28th of March, off Porto Rico by the gunboat Tuscarora, and arrived at Havana looking, in charge of a prize crew. She was removed [illegible] for Key West.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC, April 6

The mail papers of the 7th are received. The [illegible] of the statement expressed in an editorial [illegible] to the people of the South to raise artificially [illegible] of cotton. They contain the following telegraphs:

CHATTANOOGA, 4th.

There is nothing additional from the front this morning.

Skirmishing with the enemy's pickets are of daily occurrence, but a general engagement is not [illegible] immediate.

JACKSON, 4th.

Reports from Port Hudson state that Banks has [illegible] back. One division of his army is at Baton Rouge, and the rest down river.

It is stated that 5000 troops left Memphis yesterday for Vicksburg, but after night went North.

VICKSBURG, 4th.

Everything quiet here to-night. But few boats in sight.

Nothing new from Yazoo.

A flag of truce was sent down to-day by the enemy. The object was not made public.

CHARLESTON, 6th

Important movements are taking place here, but for military reasons no portion are can yet be telegraphed.

In the Examiner of the 7th is a leader setting forth the obstacles in the way of opening a route inland to Texas above Helena Bluff.

Before the adjournment of the Virginia Legislature, resolutions passed, appealing to every farmer to raise provisions beyond the usual amount, and, enjoining frugality in the use of food.

The Legislature of Texas has passed a bill assessing its proportion of the Confederate indebtedness.

They intend passing a bill to repeal the stay law of the State.

Later—The Richmond Sentinel of the 7th has the following significant paragraphs—

"On yesterday morning eight monitors and iron clads were off the bar at Charleston.

The brief but significant telegraph which was received early in the day and published elsewhere, tells of the long expected collision has probably come off ere this.

The storm so long prepared for Charleston has burst at last.

We shall publish the results as we learn them. We await the issue with buoyant hopes, but not without the solicitude due to the important struggle. May Heaven shield Charleston from all the rage of her enemies and foes."

The Sentinel editorially refers in ambiguous terms to a riot which took place in Richmond last Thursday of such magnitude as to cause the affair to be suppressed from publication. From the article it appears that the city was for a while at the control of a lawless mob of men and women for the ostensible purpose to save themselves from starvation, by breaking open stores, bakeries, &c. The movement was made by females who, the Sentinel says, was above want, and the whole affair was simply to rob and plunder under the excuse of scarcity of food.—The millinery, dry goods and fancy stores suffered as much as those containing necessaries of life. The movement proved to have eventuated from the high prices generally.

The Sentinel, in speaking of the riot, alludes to the fact that all the papers had, after consultation, concluded at the time not to mention the matter.

The Mobile Register of the 29th records the fact that a body of Union troops had penetrated to Pontchatoula, and dispersed a body of rebels there.

The banks of Savannah have joined in a loan without interest, to relieve the sufferings of the poor in that city.

NEW YORK, 8th.

The Post learns that on the 4th General Foster was at Little Washington with a brigade, a regiment of North Carolina troops and seven others, and was virtually surrounded by rebels, who have erected batteries on Tar River between Newbern and Little Washington, which the naval force of wooden gunboats are unable to pass.

It was understood that a battle had taken place between Foster and the rebels, but nothing definite was known.

Heavy firing was heard, lasting from Wednesday night to Friday night, evidently from the rebel batteries.

General Foster's means of retreat are deemed ample, having a fair and entire channel, with sufficient ammunition and provisions.

Large reinforcements are in the transports below the batteries, unable to reach Foster for want of some naval force co-operant to take them.

It is reported that General Foster sent to Mistress Monroe some time since for naval reinforcements, and expected to have troops sent him from Suffolk.

WASHINGTON, 8th.

The remaining part of the report of the Committee on the conduct of the war has been printed, and will soon be given to the public. It is on the subject of Bull Run, Ball's Bluff and the Western or Missouri Department.

The Committee also took testimony in relation to Hatteras Inlet and Port Royal, and Burnside and Accomac expeditions, the capture of New Orleans and the invasion of New Mexico, &c.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that oil manufactured without distillation from paraffine and benzole, will be subject to a duty of 3 per cent ad valorem; coal luminating oil manufactured by distillation, or redistillation of benzole, paraffine or other hydrocarbons substances, is subject to a duty of 10 cents per gallon.

Generals Barry and Hartsuff have been relieved from duty on the D'Utassy court martial, and Generals Morrill and Cadwalader appointed in their places.

An officer who arrived here to-day from the North Carolina coast says it was believed among our forces, the information coming from what was believed a reliable source, that Gen. Longstreet some time ago made application to Jeff. Davis for 60,000 troops for the purpose of clearing Albemarle Sound, and he was informed that he could have 80,000 from the Rappahannock, but must obtain the balance from Governor Vance of North Carolina. It is further reported that one of the Hills is in command.

When this intelligence reached Foster Monroe assistance was sent from that point.

WASHINGTON, 8th.

Mr Henry P Leslie, carpenter in the United States Navy and stationed in the Naval Academy Yard at Annapolis, Md., to look after government buildings grounds, &c, formerly occupied by Professors, officers and midshipmen, now connected with the U S Naval School at Newport, R I, has been directed by the Navy Department to purchase a number of trees and plant them at suitable points in the yard to replace those destroyed or cut down, and send to the proper bureau full and full detailed estimates for such repairs as may be necessary to effect on the Academy buildings, which are, at this time used as a army hospital for a number of sick and wounded soldiers of the Union army.

The Naval Academy by order of the Secretary of the Navy was removed from Annapolis in May 1861, and temporarily located at Fort Adams, Newport, R I. Recent advices from that place speak in high terms of the discipline, efficiency and exertions to which that institution has attained. The cadets are evincing marked proficiency in their studies and duties, and general good health prevails.

HEADQUARTERS MONROE, 7th.

The flag of truce Boat Columbia left today for City Point with 356 rebel prisoners for exchange.

Steamboat Sylvan Shore sailed this afternoon for Washington loaded with contrabands.

An expedition was sent out this morning from Yorktown.

The telegraph cable between here and Cherrystone was interrupted by the storm last Saturday. It will be repaired as soon as the weather permits.

General Keyes visited Suffolk yesterday, and was heartily received by General Peck.

A rebel cavalry man who deserted from the rebel army on the Blackwater road came into Norfolk yesterday; says the rebels are making arrangements to remove their capital from Richmond to Chattanooga, and that the scarcity of provisions and forage is the principle cause.

PHILADELPHIA, 8th.

The sale of five-twenties so-day amounted to a million; one three-quarters, of which still a million was from the west of the Susquehanna.

BALTIMORE, 8th.

The efforts to recover $70,000 in government securities, which were stolen from the safe of Adams' Express Company, near Baltimore, on the 18th ult., have been most successful. All the parties, nine in number, concerned in the robbery, have been arrested and the now confined in Fort McHenry. All but $60 000 of the securities were recovered, either from the persons of the thieves, or from places where they had concealed them.

Great credit is due to Allen Pinkerton, the Chicago detective agent, under whose direction the investigation has been conducted.

NEW YORK, 8th.

The schr. Clara was captured off Mobile bar on the 26th ult., by the gunboat Kanawha.

Havana sugar market was tame, with offers of 6½ a 6 reals for No 12 clayed.

New lots sold at high as 6 1-4

Stock of sugar in port 280,000 boxes.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC, Camp near Falmouth, April 5th.

A review of a portion of the army took place to-day which took place in the rear of Falmouth. General Hooker and staff were present. The troops presented was undoubtedly one of the finest military pageants ever witnessed on this this continent.

NASHVILLE, 8th.

A successful expedition sent by Gen. Mitchell encountered a party of rebels at Ashland, Tenn., and captured 4 men and 12 horses.

All quiet between Nashville and Clarksville.

LOUISVILLE, 8th.

Colonel O H Moore of the 25th Michigan, has been appointed Provost Marshal of Louisville, vice Lt Col Silsby Harvey, who takes command of the 24th Kentucky.

Major Allen succeeds Major Chas T Larned as Chief Paymaster of the army of the Cumberland.

NEWBERN, N C, 6th

The schooner Nissmer, of Newport, which sailed from this port March 30th, for Havana, returned this afternoon in distress, having encountered heavy gales on the 3d, in which she lost deck load of hoop poles, boat, mainsail, mainboom and received other damage

SAN FRANCISCO, 7th.

Shipping—Ship Compeer, for Liverpool, with cargo of breadstuffs

Nothing later from city of Mexico.

Acapulco advices of March 28 state that 2000 bales of cotton await shipment for New York by the California steamer, and it was expected a still larger lot would soon be sent from the interior.

The party raising treasure from the wreck of the Golden Gate had suspended operations, on account of the loss of their apparatus by the capsizing of a boat. They had not recovered much treasure since previous advices.

An order has been issued requiring all treasure hereafter stated be paid into the court here, on Friday, unless cause can be shown why it should not.

POOR RICHARD'S
EYE AND EAR WATER.

This is the Best Preparation in the World!

READER, are you aware that every time you think, speak or act, you draw on your eyes for strength to do so Now you are debtor to them, and if they have not arrested your body and shut it up in the prison of disease, remember they must assuredly will if you do not satisfy their claim (which is a small one) for all the services they render to you continually. They are crying to you for help every blood streak is a voice Hear their cry, and save yourself by saving them Give them a drink of POOR RICHARD'S EYE WATER, Morning, and Night This is all they ask, and they will positively keep your body out of the prison house of disease They do not want to lose time in explanations Try them and prove them By faithful performance, Deafness can be cured and prevented—Baths both eyes and ears.

A Remarkable Cure in Bangor.

I, W H PRITCHARD, do certify that my wife Esther S, has had Weak Eyes from childhood, caused by measles One year since a lump appeared on the lash of her eye It increased to the size of a large pea Becoming somewhat alarmed about the progress it was making I took my wife Mrs M G BROWN, at the Exchange. She told me she would remove it, and further strengthen her eyes Mrs B applied her medicine at seven o'clock in the evening, and at nine o'clock the lump was gone We could see no more of it My wife can now see people walking on the other side of the street which she could never do before She has always had headache when riding in a carriage Yesterday when riding in a carriage, she had no return of headache. My own eyes were treated two or three times by Mrs Brown I find them much strengthened W H PRITCHARD

Mr R H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted and that is now pending Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on the part made me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patentees as they may be sure of having the most strictest attention bestowed on their cases and at very reasonable charges
